Last Saturday evening Mr. B. O. Packard of Douglas was a visitor at Nogales. The gentleman arrived from Cananea, and went southward on the Sonora train later in the evening, his destination being Llano.

Tuesday morning there was at Nogales, en route to Chihuahua, via El Paso, Right Reverend Father Gavilan, bishop of Chihuahua, and Monsignor Rizk, the vicar general of that diocese. The two gentlemen were making an episcopal visitation in western Chihuahua when the insurrection broke out; and their route home was cut off. So they crossed the mountains into Sonora, to the terminus of the railway at Tonichi, on the Yaqui river, thence by rail home via this roundabout route.
